

LOWELL E. HANES

Special service set Aug. 17

The late Lowell E. Hanes, a veteran of World War II, will be honored at a military memorial Aug. 17 at 10 a.m. at Aurora Cemetery. A tribute also will be paid to his wife, Gladys L. (Richards) Hanes, who passed away several years ago.

Mr. Hanes served in the Army Air Corps, now known as the Air Force. Representatives from Wright Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, as part of the military honors program, will conduct the service, along with members of American Legion Post 803 and the Rev. Kevin Horak of the Church in Aurora.

The community is invited to attend the special ceremony.
